ECLIPSES IN THE YEAR 1847.

There will be two eclipses of the sun, and two of the moon this year.

I. There will be an eclipse of the moon at the time of her full, Wednesday, March 31st, invisible in America.

II. There will be an eclipse of the sun on Thursday, April 15th, at the time of the new moon, invisible in America.

III. There will be an eclipse of the moon on Friday, September 24th, at the time of her full, invisible east of the Rocky Mountains in America.

IV. There will be an eclipse of the sun on Saturday, the 9th of October, at the time of new moon, invisible in the United States.

Rates of Postage.

Letters not exceeding half an ounce, under 300 miles, 5 cents; over 300 miles 16 cents; and the same added for each additional half ounce, or any part thereof. Drop letters for delivery at the same office 2 cents. Letters advertised 2 cents extra, or 4, if advertising costs so much.

Ship-Letters, delivered where received, 6 cents. Conveyed by mail, 2 cents added to usual postage.

Circulars printed or lithographed on letter or foolscap, unsealed, any distance 2 cents. Circulars larger than single cap, same as pamphlets.

Newspapers, published monthly or oftener, containing intelligence of passing events, and not exceeding 1,900 sq. inches, whether in one or two pieces of paper, under 30 miles if sent by the publishers, free; over 30 and not exceeding 100, or within the State, 1 cent, over 100 and out of the State, one and a half cents. If over 1,900 square inches, same as pamphlets.

Pamphlets, whether periodical or not, any distance, one ounce or less, each copy two and a half cents; each additional ounce one cent. Fractional excess less than half an ounce not counted. Newspapers and pamphlets must be folded with the end open.

Entered according to the act of Congress, in the year 1845, by VALENTINE W. SKIFF,

In the Clerk's Office of the District Court of Massachusetts.

ADVERTISEMENT.

IN presenting to his fellow citizens the third number of this little Annual, the subscriber would return his thanks for the liberal and extended patronage bestowed on the undertaking, which has enabled him to bring out the present number (we think) in a much improved style, with new and beautiful type, from the press of Mr. John M. Wood.

This list has been prepared with great care, by personal application at every house and place of business in the three villages, and is believed to be as correct as such a list can be made.

The advertising department will be found by no means the least valuable portion of the volume. By reference to the alphabetical index, it will be seen that many of the principal business establishments of the villages are here represented, and the citizen or stranger may find in it directions where to obtain almost every variety of work or merchandize that can be called for.

On the whole, it is believed that the citizens of Springfield, and all doing business here, will find in this little volume such a collection of information in relation, as well to the people of the place as to their employments and public institutions, as will render it an almost indispensable book of reference in the family, work-shop and store.

Shall we despond, while with vision still free,
 We can gaze on the sky and the earth and the sea—
 While the sunshine can waken a burst of delight,
 And the stars are a joy and a glory by night—
 While each harmony running thro' nature can raise
 In our spirits, the impulse of gladness and praise.

Oft have you hinted to your brother peer,
 A certain truth, which many buy too dear—
 Something there is more needful than expense,
 And something previous even to taste—'Tis sense.

Old Winter who breathes consternation and dread
 When his blasts through the green vallies sweep,
 Has been laid with his gray and Methusela head
 In the grave where his forefathers sleep.

Some phantom fair we each pursue.

Fame, pleasure, fortune, power or love,
 And each will prove alike untrue ;
 The real dwells above.

Virtuous and vicious every man must be,
 Few in the extreme, but all in the degree;
 The rogue and fool by fits is fair and wise;
 And e'en the best, by fits, what they despise.
